Please attach a copy of your resume and a cover letter describing why you are interested in working for a Shorenstein Fellow. Fellows expect a commitment for the entire semester, 5-8 hours/week. Students will be paid a stipendiary rate of $12/hour. Specific hours and responsibilities will be arranged by the individual Fellow. Duties may include xeroxing, trips to the library, Internet research, creating charts or graphs for research papers, etc. Fellows will receive all applications, may request interviews with students, and will make their own hiring decisions.

Application materials should be delivered in person to Camille Stevens, Taubman 267, no later than 4 pm on Friday, September 12. (Tel: 617-496-3557). Please note that a hard copy of your application is required.

Email application submissions will not be considered.
