CURTATONE ADDRESSES HARVARD'S RAPPAPORT FELLOWS

Rappaport Seminar: July 19, 2006

SOMERVILLE – Fellows Erick Guerra (left) and Audra Ladd look on as Mayor Joseph A. Curtatone leads a graduate student seminar for twelve fellows from the Kennedy School of Government's Rappaport Institute for Greater Boston Wednesday evening at City Hall. The two-hour seminar, hosted by Mayor Curtatone and Institute Executive Director David Luberoff, featured a presentation by the mayor and a candid question-and-answer session about the city's development agenda, the challenges of municipal budgeting, and life as a public official.

Three Rappaport Fellows are currently working at City Hall: Erick Guerra, Audra Ladd, and Rebecca Haessig. Guerra and Ladd are working on projects in the Office of Strategic Planning and Community Development, and Haessig is developing a Customer Service Plan for the city in the mayor's SomerStat department.
