

TEACHING CASES

The Case Program at the John F. Kennedy School of Government is the world's largest producer and repository of case studies designed for teaching about how government works, how public policy is developed, and how nonprofit organizations operate. The Case website includes abstracts for nearly 2,000 cases, epilogues, sequels, and notes, as well as guides on how to teach and learn using the case method. Further information and online purchase options are available from <http://www.ksgcase.harvard.edu> or by contacting the Case Program at 617.495.1166.
