

Contents

Information-Based Regulation

Smart Regulation: How Government is Marshalling Firms and Citizens to Protect the Environment	2
Controlling Sweatshops: New Solutions to an Intransigent Problem	4
Putting Disclosure to the Test	6

Land Use, Transportation, and the Environment

Governance and Opportunity in Metropolitan America	8
Segregating Suburbs: The Case of Boston	10
Privately Owned Public Space: The New York City Experience	11
Deregulating Airlines: Time to Finish the Job	13
The Linked Futures of the Internet and Conservation	15
The Safety Benefits of Freeway Management Systems	16

Education and Governance

A Liberal Case for Vouchers	17
The Curriculum Wars	19
Teacher Unions and Educational Reform	19
Ingredients for Replicating School Innovations	20

Civic Engagement

Bowling Alone: The Collapse and Revival of American Community	22
Measuring Social Capital	22
Can the Arts Incubate Social Capital in America?	23

Innovations and Public Management

Gail Christopher to Head Innovations Program	25
When Quality Comes to the Public Sector	26
1999 Innovations in American Government Winners	28

Domestic Preparedness for Terrorism

The Threat of Domestic Terrorism	29
The State-Local Role in Preparing for Domestic Terrorism	31

Strategic Computing and Telecommunications

Guidelines for Leaders in a Networked World	33
---------------------------------------------	----

The Federal Budget and the States

The Robin Hood Effect: How the Federal Budget Redistributes Income Across States	34
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Around the Center

Recent Publications

36
39